From Our Pastor

My dear friends in Christ,

Today we wish a warm welcome to Sr. Joanne Lammers, OSF, the Director of Mission Advancement for the Sisters of St. Francis of Tiffin, OH who will share with us this weekend her story of service in Appalachian missions.

You may have noticed that our cross on St. John steeple has been returned. It was completed re-gilded under the direction of the Joe Helming Co. The cost of the gilding has been donated and our steeple once again is very beautiful.

Starting this Monday, the floor of the entrance of the church will be worked on by Rich Kluesner and Jim Nolan. For some time, there has been a bow in the floor from years of wear and tear which is in need of repair. Rich Kluesner has volunteered his services to fix the floor and Jim Nolan will install a new covering. This project should be finished by the weekend.

Enclosed in the bulletin this week is a letter inviting you to attend a meeting about our upcoming diocesan capital campaign. The meeting will be led by Fr. Bernie Etienne, our Diocesan Administrator, Tim McGuire, the Chancellor, and Diane Keller the campaign manager from the Steier Group. The meeting will be held this Tuesday evening, August 8th at 6:00 p.m. in the lower level of the Center. I look forward to seeing you there.

May the Lord bless and keep you,
 Father Walker.

The Sisters of St. Francis' missionaries will be speaking at Sunday Masses this weekend. The Sisters serve those who are poor, with foreign missions in Mexico and home missions in Appalachia. In remote areas of Mexico they work to build faith communities where there are no priests for regular Sunday Masses. Sisters also give children living in extreme poverty the opportunity to obtain an education plus emergency needs of food and medicine. Appalachian ministries include faith development and pastoral care, adult literacy, and emergency outreach of food, clothing, and shelter for the poor. Please help make a difference in the lives of people suffering from poverty with your prayers and financial support.
