From Our Pastor

My dear friends in Christ,

This Sunday we celebrate the Feast of the Baptism of Jesus which marks the beginning of His public ministry. The baptism of Jesus in the River Jordan signify the start of his preaching and teaching. When the Holy Spirit descended as a dove, we witness the Father's blessing on the ministry of Jesus and we see the foreshadowing of the Trinitarian baptism. Through Baptism, we have become adopted sons and daughters of God which means we can think of Jesus as our brother. He is with us to teach, protect, comfort, and be our companion on the journey to heaven. We give thanks and praise to the Lord for coming to earth to show us the love, compassion, and mercy of Almighty God. Ultimately, Jesus opened the gates of heaven by dying on the cross for the believer. We are called to seek the Lord always. Our minds and hearts do not match that of God so we must strive to open our hearts for greater understanding which will lead us to Him. As we begin this new year, let us talk to Him daily in prayer.

May the Lord bless and keep you,
Father Walker.

We will continue to livestream our Masses.

Religion

Thank you for sending your children to religion classes. It is a blessing to meet with them each week! I had the pleasure of sitting in one of our classes for the majority of the class this week and I was inspired by the thoughtful, level headedness of our students and the deep, meaningful lessons prepared and taught by our catechists. The main message was that, in a world that seems chaotic and unpredictable, we should always remember that our goal in life should be to conduct ourselves in as Christ-like a manner as we can. Also stressed was that, no matter the choices of others, we are to treat them with love and compassion and always remember that things are often not what they seem to be on the outside. In many ways, I felt like a student in the class and it was a really wonderful reminder that our lives are a lengthy journey of faith from beginning to end. Please, join me in praying for our First Communion and Confirmation students as they undergo a special journey in their faith.
