From Our Pastor

Last Saturday we celebrated the life of Anne F. O'Neal, who was baptized at St. John 96 years ago. After graduating from college and obtaining her Master's degree, Ann taught for 36 years. Even though Ann lived away from our community during her teaching career she always considered Loogootee her home and St. John her parish. We are most thankful that she dedicated her life to the teaching of the youth. She will be greatly missed by her 17 nieces and nephews as well those of us who knew her. May Anne rest in peace. Amen.

This Monday, January 22nd is the anniversary of the Supreme Court decision, Roe vs. Wade (1973), which legalized abortion in the United States. Our diocese along with the other dioceses in the United States will observe this day of prayer for the legal protection of unborn children. The Mass will be "For giving thanks to God for the gift of life".

Archabbot Kurt Stasiak, O.S.B. asked that I speak to you this weekend about Saint Meinrad Archabbey and Seminary since I am a graduate of the St. Meinrad College and School of Theology. Our diocese and this parish have been greatly blessed by the monks of St. Meinrad as they have trained most of our priests since its founding in 1854.

Saint Meinrad Seminary and School of Theology offers programs in Roman Catholic priesthood formation, theological formation for Roman Catholic permanent deacon candidates, lay degrees in theology, continuing adult education and youth leadership as part of its secondary education mission.

The priesthood formation program goes beyond academics; it provides in-depth training for a lifetime commitment as a priest in four areas: human formation, spiritual formation, academic formation and pastoral formation. In the human formation, the graduate must take responsibility for integrating the various aspects of their humanity and behavior into a well-woven fabric that is compatible with being a Christian minister in general and a Roman Catholic priest in particular, including the lifestyle that both of those require. In the spiritual formation, spiritual direction fosters, encourages and challenges the seminarian's growth as a Christian and strengthens their relationship with God. In the academic formation, the seminarian must be familiar with sources of each Roman Catholic tradition as well as the rich two-millennia intellectual heritage of the Roman Catholic Church. In the pastoral formation, a program similar to a university's institutional management program is taught to the seminarian as preparation for managing a parish and its relations with the larger community.

Sunday Collection Jan. 13th /14th 2018

St. John 252 envelopes (869 families) $8,316.00

I am very thankful for the excellent education and spiritual formation that I received from the monks at St. Meinrad and I ask you to join me in helping them.

You will note that it is time to renew your subscription to The Message which is our diocesan weekly newspaper. I would encourage you to do so because The Message is the official communication from our new Bishop, Joseph Siegel. It is a good way to be current with the various events in the diocese, our county, and the Universal Church. Please take advantage of this wonderful opportunity to keep in touch with the pulse of our faith.

May the Lord bless and keep you,
Father Walker.
