From Our Pastor

My dear friends in Christ,

This past week we celebrated the lives of Deborah Hedrick (54) and Dewey E. Weaver (88) who were good and faithful Christians. Deborah was taken at such an early age but certainly left behind a legacy of kindness and compassion as she thought of others before herself. Dewey who was called from this life at a much later time helped to build God's Kingdom. It is often said, that converts make the best Catholics which is certainly true in the life of Dewey Weaver who lived his faith well. We pray that Deborah and Dewey are now at peace in God's Kingdom. Our sincere sympathy to their families.

Throughout the diocese of Evansville this weekend is St. Meinrad Sunday. St. Meinrad Seminary and School of Theology has a long history of service to the Diocese of Evansville. In fact, 50 of our active and retired priests including Bishop Thompson, Bishop Emeritus Gettelfinger, and myself, 51 permanent deacons, 16 religious and 357 lay people are alumni of St. Meinrad.

Additionally, the Graduate Theology Programs offer master's-level theology courses for men and women. St. Meinrad's Permanent Deacon Formation Program provides individual dioceses with academic and spiritual formation for their deacon candidates. Retreats are available for individuals or small groups.

For young people, the "one Bread, One Cup" Summer liturgical leadership conferences at St. Meinrad offer the chance to learn about their faith and develop new skills they can use in their parishes.

You can be part of this important work. The monks of St. Meinrad Archabbey encourage you to pray for vocations to the priesthood and religious life. They ask for your financial support and partnership to continue this work of serving the Church.

In the week ahead, Archabbot Justin will be sending a letter to all the registered members of the parish. He will ask you to consider a financial gift in support of St. Meinrad.. Every gift helps and anything you can do for St. Meinrad will support the monks in their work of preparing good and holy priests, deacons and lay ministers for the Church. This school year, 119 seminarians from 31 dioceses and religious communities are studying at St. Meinrad, which is very good news for all of us.

May the Lord bless and keep you,
Father Walker.

The President of the USCCB, Archbishop Joseph Kurtz, has asked all dioceses to consider a one-time special appeal for the 2015-2016 storms and natural disasters, especially due to the devastating effects of severe weather in the form of violent storms, tornados and floods impacting states in the South and Midwest. The request was sent on January 5, recommending that a special collection be taken up on the weekend of January 9-10 or 15-16. Make checks payable to the "Diocese of Evansville" or "Catholic Charities") for the purpose of 2015-2016 Domestic Disaster Relief. Thank you for your assistance in this matter. – Blessed 2016, Bishop Thompson
