From Our Pastor My dear friends in Christ,

It is with great pleasure that I announce that Pauline Hotz was nominated by our parish council for the Simon Bruté Award which is given by the diocese for outstanding service and dedication. This award will be presented on All Saints Day (Nov. 1st) by Bishop Thompson at St. Benedict Cathedral in Evansville.

As you know, Pauline has lived an exemplary life dedicated to her family, the church, and our community. She is a renowned artist and has helped in our merger process with her beautiful painting depicting the individual church steeples coming into the new St. John Parish which has become our logo. Pauline also did a painting of the old St. John School which so many of our parishioners attended. Pauline's most recent painting was of Fr. Louis Gueguen who built the present St. John the Evangelist Church, St. Mary Church in Shoals, and St. Martin Church in Whitfield, all of which also has great meaning to us. I know that I am very proud of Pauline and believe her to be an outstanding choice as the first recipient of the Bruté Award from our new St. John the Evangelist Parish.

This past Wednesday marked the beginning of our religious education classes for this year We began the afternoon classes at the Loogootee Elementary School from 3:30 to 4:40 which was a tremendous start with over 100 students attending. I am very thankful to Dr. Keller and the Loogootee School System for giving us this opportunity to be able to reach so many of our students. We are equally thankful to our religious education teachers who are giving their time to go to the Loogootee school to share their faith and knowledge with our students. The evening classes for the high school program were held at the St. John Center and they, too, have gotten off to a good start. We are making a change in the Wednesday Mass schedule from 6:00 to 6:15 to encourage our students from grades 7 to 12 to attend Mass before religion class. This will give our youth the opportunity to have full participation in the Mass. A special thank you to Paula Ringwald, our teachers, Cam Ackerman and the parish staff for working in harmony to share our faith so that our children may know more about the Lord and what it means to have a personal relationship with Him.

> May the Lord bless and keep you, Father Walker.
